Text	Overthrowing a tyrannical government is protected by our second amendment. The right did not attack small business and kill civilians. They went straight if to the source of tyranny. We tried Lawsuits, phone calls, peaceful protests, every thing possible but the government and SCOTUS completely ignored a clearly fraudulent election. Violence is the last resort, but still a resort. Our country was founded because of political violence. They called our founding fathers traitors. You can only push us so far before we snap
